

Job Announcement

Thistle & Bee

Executive Director

Thistle & Bee Overview

Founded in 2015, Thistle and Bee Enterprises, Inc. (T&B) was created to help women thrive who have survived prostitution and trafficking. Through a residential program and a social enterprise built around the manufacture and sale of products made from honey and herbs, survivors will experience healing as they gain skills and experience needed to rebuild their lives.

Summary Description

The Thistle & Bee Executive Director...

- Works with the Board Chair and Board of Directors to implement Thistle & Bee's 3-year strategic plan;
- Increases diversity of the Board and strengthens overall Board engagement;
- Creates and implements organization infrastructure;
- Directs implementation of policies and procedures for all aspects of T&B operations;
- Cultivates funding opportunities to support hiring of key staff and procuring office/production space;
- Develops, manages, and grows the T&B budget;
- Directs growth of social enterprise through expansion of product line and sales venues;
- Remains abreast of significant trends, research, and discussions by networking and attending professional seminars, public lectures, and reading relevant publications.

Job Requirements

Education: Bachelor's degree, Master's degree preferred

Professional Background:

At least three years work or relevant experience in a position with significant planning and decision-making responsibility

Personal Qualities:

The position requires a high-level of skills, maturity, and judgment.

- Honesty/Integrity
- Organization/Planning
- Strategic thinking/Visioning
- Strong work ethic
- Persistence
- Flexibility/Adaptability
- Open Communicator
- Follows through on commitments

Contact: If interested in applying for the Thistle & Bee Executive Director position, please email your résumé to efarmer@thistleandbee.org. Application deadline: July 31, 2017.